Disability Resource Center

www.clackamas.edu/drc

CCC Oregon City Campus, Wacheno Welcome Center
503-594-6357
drc@clackamas.edu

The Disability Resource Center (DRC) provides students with disabilities equal access to college activities, courses (both online and in-person) and programs.

Students who have a diagnosis that impacts their ability to learn or take a test, either temporarily or permanently, should contact the DRC.

The first step to seeking services with the Disability Resource Center (DRC) is to submit documentation of diagnosis. This could be a 504 plan, IEP, or letter from a qualified provider. After the DRC receives the documentation a meeting will be scheduled to determine accommodations for classes. Please contact the DRC with questions about the DRC or obtaining documentation.

Have a question? Or unsure what qualifies for accommodations? Contact the DRC, 503-594-6357 or drc@clackamas.edu.

The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships

www.clackamas.edu/financial-aid

CCC Oregon City Campus, Wacheno Welcome Center
503-594-6082

The Office of Financial Aid and Scholarships provides students with information, resources, applications, and other required forms necessary to apply for various types of aid offered through the federal government, state, and Clackamas Community College (CCC). Here are the steps to applying for financial aid at CCC.

Step by Step Process

Step 1 Apply to CCC

Go to: www.clackamas.edu/apply

Step 2 Apply for Financial Aid

U.S. Citizens and permanent residents: Apply at www.fafsa.gov every year as soon after Oct. 1 as possible. This one application provides consideration for federal and state grants, federal student loans, and work-study opportunities. CCC's School Code: 004878.

Undocumented Oregon residents: Complete the Oregon Student Aid Application (ORSAA) at oregonstudentaid.gov to determine eligibility for some state-based financial aid programs. The ORSAA is for undocumented Oregon students, including students who have DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals) status. Note: Do NOT complete the ORSAA if you are a U.S. citizen or a legal permanent resident with an Alien Registration number, as you will already be considered for Oregon-based financial aid through FAFSA.

Step 3 Check your email in MyClackamas

Go to: my.clackamas.edu

- Indicates the college has received your FAFSA or ORSAA.
- We communicate all instructions for your next steps via email.

Step 4 Check your MyClackamas account-weekly

Click on: Self Service Financial Aid Tab

- Complete all documents requested.
- Once documents are submitted, it may take a few weeks to review your file.
- Additional information may be required.
- You will receive an email once your file is reviewed and your award letter is available.

- Accept or reject your award letter online.
- To receive loans, go to www.studentaid.gov
- Complete: Entrance Counseling for CCC and a Master Promissory Note (MPN). (Select Subsidized/Unsubsidized.)

Scholarships

www.clackamas.edu/Scholarships

503-594-6082

scholarships@clackamas.edu (scholarships@clackamas.edu)

The CCC Foundation raises funds each year to provide nearly $1,000,000 in scholarship awards to new and returning students. There is just one simple electronic application to fill out to compete for hundreds of scholarships. On average, one in three applicants receive an award!

The application, application cycle dates, and more information are online at: www.clackamas.edu/Scholarships

You can get questions answered by emailing scholarships@clackamas.edu (scholarships@clackamas.edu).

ccc foundation scholarships

The CCC Foundation funds more than $1,000,000 in scholarships each year for new and returning students. Our application is online at <http://www.clackamas.edu/Scholarships>. There, you can also find the application short answer questions, the application scoring rubric, and a scholarship workshop schedule, so you can access resources to confidently put your best self forward.

You must be an admitted student with Clackamas email credentials to fill out the application. Once you have completed our scholarship application, you are automatically considered for all CCC Foundation scholarships you meet the criteria for. We encourage all students to apply! These scholarships are not transferrable to other institutions.

Special Tuition Scholarships

If you have special skills or plan to participate in extracurricular activities like art, athletics, speech, journalism, student government, music or theater, you may be eligible for a tuition waiver. Contact the appropriate college department to find out how to apply.

Private (Non-CCC) Scholarships

A variety of sources offer scholarships for community college students of all ages. These scholarships are listed at www.clackamas.edu/Scholarships.

Honor Society

ΦΘΚ: Phi Theta Kappa

503-594-3040 or 503-594-3041

phitk@clackamas.edu

The Clackamas chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, the international honor society for students in community colleges, offers students recognition for hard work and ways to contribute to the community.

Students who have completed at least 12 college-level credits and have a 3.5 or better cumulative grade point average are invited to join (watch your email for your link).

Membership has many benefits, including Phi Theta Kappa scholarships, society publications, and travel to regional and international meetings. You also have the opportunity to wear a gold stole and tassel at graduation. Chapter activities are centered around the society's four hallmarks: scholarship, leadership, service, and fellowship. Joining Phi Theta Kappa is a mark of distinction.

A successful career starts here!

CCC's Workforce Development Services supports employment in the community by providing training and support services to achieve employment. We provide opportunities to individuals and employers while promoting equity, inclusiveness and respect.

Our Workforce advisors connect people, especially unemployed and underemployed workers, to career development and support services with on-the-job training in growing, high-demand fields like manufacturing, health care and technology. One of our areas of expertise is helping laid-off workers and businesses in need of connecting with a skilled pool of talent to remain competitive.

As part of the WorkSource Oregon network of experts across the state, our goal is to develop a highly skilled workforce that creates economic prosperity in Clackamas County.

Student Rights

Campus Security Report – Jeanne Clery Act1

The "Jeanne Clery Disclosure for Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act" (formerly the Campus Security Act) is a federal law that requires institutions of higher education to disclose campus security information, including crime statistics for the campus and surrounding area. As a current or prospective CCC student or employee, you have a right to obtain a copy of this information. You may review this information by accessing the federal government website (enter "Clackamas Community College" in the search field) or in the CCC student handbook. You may also obtain a hard copy of this information upon request by contacting the CCC Campus Safety at 503-594-6650 or at www.clackamas.edu/student-rights

Directory Information

Clackamas Community College has established an institutional policy regarding the release of limited directory information as defined in the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). The following information may be released upon request to anyone:

1. Full name
2. Enrollment status
3. Enrollment dates
4. Verification of certificate, degree, or honors and awards
5. Residency status
6. Major/program
7. Athletic participation (Including height and weight of team members.)

The following information may be released by the Dean of Academic Foundations and Connections or Registrar:

1. Address and telephone number
2. Class location to Public Safety in case of health or safety emergencies.

Exceptions to the above may include but are not limited to:

1. Release of alumni names and addresses to our Foundation Office for communication with CCC graduates;
2. The release and posting of names of students receiving academic honors/awards;
3. Student-athletes may sign a release of information form through the Athletic Department for the release of information regarding registration activity, grades, and access to records by their coach or the athletic director. Other student groups may also sign similar releases through their department/group.

Students employed with the college that have access to student records receive FERPA training and are asked to read and sign an institutional confidentiality statement of understanding. Directory information for use within the college is permitted in accordance with FERPA guidelines. Disclosure within the college does not constitute institutional authorization to transmit, share or disclose any or all information received to a third party.

Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) provides students with specific rights regarding their academic records. They are as follows:

- The right to inspect and review your records. You may request to review your records by submitting a written request to the Registration and Records Office or other school official having custody of such records.
- The right to seek amendment to your record if you believe it to be inaccurate, misleading or in violation of your privacy rights. Requests for amendments must be in writing and must describe the specific item or record you wish to have amended. You must also include the reasons why the amendment is justified.
- The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in your academic records, except when consent is not required by FERPA. FERPA does not require a student's consent when disclosure is to school officials with legitimate educational interests (See AR 6-96-0031). Additionally, consent is not required by FERPA in the instances where a person or company with whom the college has contracted or appointed as its agent and/or students serving on official committees have legitimate educational interest. A school official has a legitimate educational interest if the official needs to review an academic record in order to fulfill their professional responsibilities.

- The right to file a complaint with the Department of Education, Family Compliance Office concerning alleged failures by the college to comply with the FERPA requirements.
- FERPA allows the college to disclose your directory information without consent. If you do not want this information released, you must submit a request with the Enrollment and Graduation Services Office.

Release of Information

Clackamas Community College adheres to and is committed to honoring all state and federal laws pertaining to the privacy and confidentiality of your directory information and academic record. You have the right to restrict access to information if you so choose. Please refer to the following in regards to the release and restriction of directory information.

Requesting to Restrict the Release of Directory Information

You may restrict the release of directory information as mentioned above by submitting a Restrict Directory Information request form to the Enrollment and Graduation Services Office. This restriction will remain in place until you ask for removal. It will remain in place even after you graduate or have stopped attending.

Use of Your Social Security Number

OAR 581-41-460 authorizes Clackamas Community College to ask you to provide your Social Security Number. The number will be used for reporting, research, and record keeping. Your number will also be provided by the college to the Oregon Community College Unified Reporting System (OCCURS), which is a group made up of all community colleges in Oregon, the State Department of Community Colleges and Workforce Development and the Oregon Community College Association. OCCURS gathers information about students and programs to meet state and federal reporting requirements. It also helps colleges plan, research and develop programs. This information helps the colleges to support the progress of students and their success in the workplace and other education programs. OCCURS or the college may provide your Social Security Number to the following agencies or match it with records from the following systems:

- State and private universities, colleges and vocational schools, to find out how many community college students go on with their education and to find out whether community college courses are a good basis for further education.
- The Shared Information System, which gathers information to help state and local agencies plan education and training services to help Oregon citizens get the best jobs available.
- The Office of Professional Technical Education Management Information System, to provide reports to the state and federal governments. The information is used to learn about education, training and job market trends for planning, research and program improvement. Funding for community colleges is based on this information.
- The Oregon Employment Department, which gathers information, including employment and earnings, to help state and local agencies plan education and training services to help Oregon citizens get the best jobs available.

- The Oregon Department of Education, to provide reports to local, state, and federal governments. The information is used to learn about education, training, and job market trends for planning, research and program improvement.
- The Oregon Department of Revenue and collection agencies only for purposes of processing debts and only if credit is extended to you by the college.
- The National Student Loan Clearinghouse for the purpose of verifying your enrollment at other colleges, universities and vocational schools.
- The Internal Revenue Service, to provide required information related to the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997.

State and federal law protects the privacy of your records. Your number will be used only for the purposes listed above.

Solomon Amendment Disclosure

The Solomon Amendment requires by law that the college release: student name, address, telephone number, date of birth, educational level, academic major and degrees awarded upon request from recruiters of the branches of the U.S. military.

Student Information

The college collects data on all students¹. The kind and amount of data differ for each student depending on the kind of services you use and the length of your stay at the college. Pursuant to Public Law 93-380, you may review all official records, files, or data pertaining to you, with the following exceptions:

- Confidential financial information reported by the parent or guardian unless the records explicitly grant by written permission the student to review the financial statement.
- Medical, psychiatric, or similar records used for treatment purposes.

Access to your student record is guaranteed and must be made available to you within 45 days of your official request. You may challenge the content of a record you consider inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of your privacy or other rights by contacting the college Registrar. You have the right to a hearing as outlined in the "Students' Rights, Freedoms & Responsibilities" section of the Student Handbook.

¹ All data from records submitted, filed, and accumulated in Enrollment and Graduation Services become the property of the College

Discrimination Concerns

Clackamas Community College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, age, national origin, disability, family relationship, or any other protected status in accordance with applicable law. The college's commitment to nondiscrimination applies to curricular activity and all aspects of the college. In accordance with applicable law, Clackamas Community College does not discriminate on the basis of a disability and is specifically dedicated to providing a harassment-free environment for all people with disabilities, as well as timely and effective provision of services for students with disabilities. To this end, the following procedures are designed to serve any member of the community who experiences any form of discrimination.

Report a safety concern to CCC

Report a safety concern, like graffiti or car prowling, to Campus Safety. For non-emergencies, please email campussafety@clackamas.edu or call 503-594-6650. In case of an emergency, dial 911.

Care team

The CARE Team helps support students who are in distress or exhibiting disruptive behaviors. The CARE Team can help if you or a friend is struggling and in need of support with academics, finances, or personal issues. Or if you are aware of an incident on campus that needs to be reported, but you aren't sure where to go.

Complete this CARE Team referral form if you are concerned about the well-being of a fellow student or would like support for yourself. One of our designated staff will reach out to you with more information.

You can also email the CARE Team at care@clackamas.edu with additional questions.

Problem Resolution procedure

Problem Resolution Form

The Problem Resolution Procedure is designed to assist students in addressing problems that involve the application of a college policy by a CCC staff member or the conduct of a CCC staff. This process is designed to solve problems informally between the student and staff member if possible, but provides for a second, more formal option if needed. Whether formal or informal, all parties are urged to respect the confidential nature of these discussions. Note that this procedure is not appropriate for pursuing a sexual harassment or discrimination complaint which have separate complaint processes outlined on this page: <https://www.clackamas.edu/about-us/contact/feedback>.

Please reference the college rule, policy or procedure allegedly violated as described in Student Rights, Freedom & Responsibilities www.clackamas.edu/students-rights

ADA Complaint Procedure

Any student who feels that they have been discriminated against or harassed due to their disability should contact the Disabilities Coordinator to report the event. The Disabilities Coordinator will then investigate the incident consistent with the ADA complaint process. Any student who feels they have been discriminated against due to disability is free at any time to submit a complaint to the office for Civil Rights. Please refer to board policy for ADA Grievance Procedure and Discrimination form:

Title IX is a federal law that obligates the college to prevent and respond to incidents of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking. The College is required to investigate all incidents of sexual misconduct and, other than those who are expressly exempt from reporting, faculty and staff (called “responsible employees”) are required to report such incidents when they receive information about sexual misconduct. Resources are available to those who have been sexually harassed or assaulted, including speaking with a confidential advocate (who does not have a duty to report). If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, consult the Title IX website for more information and options, or contact a Title IX Coordinator.

Resources and Information

Clackamas Community College is a diverse community that provides equal opportunity in employment, activities, and its programs. It is the policy of the Clackamas Community College and its Board that there will be no discrimination or harassment in any educational programs, activities, or employment on the grounds of race, color, religion, ethnicity, use of native language, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, veteran status, age, genetic information or any other status protected under applicable federal, state or local laws. The College also prohibits retaliation against an individual for engaging in activity protected under this policy and interfering with rights or privileges granted under anti-discrimination laws. Persons having questions about equal opportunity and nondiscrimination should contact the dean of Human Resources for Clackamas Community College in Barlow Hall at the Oregon City campus, 503-594-3300.
